TOMMIE HUDSON SQUARE

Book a Room:

Set in the heart of Hudson Square just steps from Soho, our urban rooms are thoughtfully designed to maximize space without sacrificing comfort. They blend multi-functional modern furniture, efficient storage spaces and a range of bed types with wool tufted area rugs, warm walnut furnishings and rain showers. Expansive windows showcase city and courtyard views, while select rooms have large outdoor terraces.

Eat & Drink:

tommie is a neighborhood hangout with friendly service and first-rate food and drink, where locals and guests sip cocktails and craft beers in our Lobby Bar and Courtyard, while meat-lovers and vegans alike build tailored meals at Harold's Meat & Three. We're serving up grilled tacos on our rooftop overlooking the Hudson and specialty Joe Coffee with small-batch snacks in our 24-hour General Store. From ground floor to rooftop, culinary adventures play out daily in a laidback communal setting.

Restaurants:

Chef Harold Moore puts a yankee spin on the southern soul food concept of “Meat & Three.” Quality cuts of meat, seafood, and vegetarian options are paired with three sides from a bountiful list of seasonal veggies, grains and starchy delights. There’s a fresh take on the salad bar and sweet tea cocktails to wash it all down.

The Courtyard & Lobby Bar:

The creative energy of Hudson Square flows into our laid-back lobby bar and open-air courtyard where locals and guests come to hang out with friends, relax outside and nosh on delicious snacks. The rotating cocktail list, menu of small bites from Harold’s Meat & Three and communal design reflect the dynamic character of our neighborhood.

The Rooftop:

This is the best neighborhood rooftop for a birds-eye-view of the Hudson River and a handpicked selection of craft beer, well-mixed cocktails and grilled street-style tacos during warm weather months. Inspired by an artist’s loft, the space has a welcoming bohemian vibe with communal tables where new friends are born.

General Store:

The General Store is the ultimate mini-bar stocked 24-hours a day with piping hot cups of JOE coffee, locally-sourced snacks, fresh sandwiches and small plates from Chef Harold Moore. Stumble upon seasonal surprises like artisanal pop tarts and Sriracha-marinated jerky to sweet treats from some of the city’s best chocolatiers.

Explore the neighborhood

You can find us in the heart of one of Manhattan's last emerging neighborhoods surrounded by the city's top creative agencies. A quick walk to shopping in Soho, drink joints of the West Village, world-class restaurants in Tribeca and the running paths of Hudson River Park. Easily reachable by subway, highway or tunnel if your feet or bike won't bring you.

Hudson Square Offers

We put a lot of thought into creating worthwhile experiences that are tailor-made to your lifestyle. We’ve handpicked the best partners and indie producers in New York City to spice up your wellness routine, mix business with pleasure, equip the urban explorer and delight foodies with interesting culinary experiences.

Meetings & Events

Our 12 spaces are what set us apart. From small gatherings in the Library to business meetings in our three bright Studios with a connecting terrace to large receptions hosted in our Courtyard or Rooftop, our team’s here to match your creativity and adapt our venues into a setup that’s as unique as your event.
