Extended-Stay Experience:

Extended-stay guests feel at home among Taj Boston's residential furnishings and refined style. Sweeping park views and crackling fireplaces create a setting of privileged comfort where intuitive service is designed to satisfy individual tastes. The hotel's Director of Guest Services is devoted to ensuring that extended-stay guests receive personal attention that caters to their specific needs.

EXCLUSIVE ACCESS

Taj Boston's luxurious guest rooms and suites, world-class dining outlets and an expert concierge team with access to the city's most coveted experiences, make an extended-stay at Taj Boston a welcome delight. Hotel guests enjoy complimentary use of the Taj Boston's Jaguar XJ house car based on availability and 24-hour access to the business and fitness centers. Extended-stay guests can spoil their friends and family with preferred hotel rates and also their beloved pooches with Taj Boston's pampering pet-friendly services.

ENTERTAINING

The Club, located on the 15th floor Executive Level overlooking the Public Garden and Boston Commons, is ideal for hosting private events or a fun family movie night. Exclusive rooftop cocktail parties and intimate in-suite dinners also create the ambience of at-home entertaining during an extended-stay at Taj Boston.

MEDICAL STAYS

Taj Boston is centrally located to the city's six major hospitals and treatment facilities including Massachusetts General, Boston Medical Center and Boston Children's Hospital. The hotel's proximity to the Public Garden and inviting guest rooms and suites create a comfortable environment for extended-stay guests to convalesce. At a moment's notice, Taj Boston can arrange for ADA accessible guest rooms, refrigerators for medical supplies and menu consultations with the Executive Chef to ensure the wellbeing of guests and their loved ones.

Location:

Nestled among rows of Victorian brownstone homes in Boston's Back Bay, Taj Boston is located in one of New England's most prominent residential neighborhoods. Extended-stay guests enjoy the hotel's prestigious address at Arlington and Newbury Streets overlooking the picturesque Public Garden and Boston Commons and its convenient access to Boston's celebrated historic sites, cutting-edge medical facilities and famous colleges and universities. A city best explored by foot, Taj Boston guests are within walking distance of the cobblestone lanes of Beacon Hill, upscale shopping at Copley Square and Newbury Street boutiques, and Boston's vibrant Theatre District. For extended-stay guests mixing work and pleasure, Taj Boston is also adjacent to the financial district and Hynes Convention Center, Fenway Park and the city's top-rated restaurants. Just four miles from Logan International Airport and minutes away from major highways and railroad stations, Taj Boston is easily accessible for visitors traveling from near and far.

Accommodations:

Taj Boston evokes residential comfort with its elegant townhouse charm featuring a prized collection of original art and antique furnishings from the early 1900's.

GUEST ROOMS:

A palette of harmonious blues, gold, soft rose, and celadon greens color the hotel's 228 guest rooms and 44 spacious suites. The classic décor of Taj Boston's guest rooms and suites feature rich fabric wall coverings, custom-designed armoires, and writing desks that overlook large windows with sweeping views of the Public Garden and Commonwealth Avenue. Extended-stay guests luxuriate in plush bedding, marble baths with deep soaking tubs and exclusive Molton Brown bath therapies.

SUITES:

Seasonal wood-burning fireplaces are the highlight of Taj Boston's suite collection, which feature a dedicated Fireplace Butler and firewood menu. Five luxury suite categories, ranging from 800 to 1,540-square-feet, offer spacious parlors, stunning panoramic views and connecting rooms to create expansive two- and three-bedroom suites ideal for extended-stay guests.

Food & Beverage:

Orchestrating Taj Boston's bevy of fine dining experiences, Executive Chef Prabeen Prathapan upholds the hotel's reputation for outstanding regional American fare, while blending in a touch of traditional Indian cuisine. Extended-stay guests enjoy around-the-clock in-room dining with mouthwatering signature dishes like the Lobster Cobb Salad, New England's finest Clam Chowder and Taj-inspired specialties from the tandoor oven.

THE CAFÉ:

The Café, a AAA Four Diamond rated restaurant, is a culinary landmark and local favorite. With windows overlooking the bustle of Newbury Street, The Café is the perfect location for an afternoon of people watching over one of Taj Boston's delicious homemade pastries made fresh daily. Seasonal menus offer an array of classic seafood specialties, as well as the hotel's authentic Indian menu selections.

THE BAR:

During the day, The Bar's rich dark woods are illuminated by flooding light from floor-to-ceiling windows overlooking Arlington Street and the Public Garden. Patrons enjoy light fare with small sharing plates and seasonal craft cocktails that feature fresh fruit juice libations. In the evening, the intimate space feels like an olden-day classic cigar bar, designed for tippling single-malt scotch and dry martinis alongside a seasonal fireplace. The Bar's classic cocktails and drawing room décor create a comfortable atmosphere for extended-stay guests to unwind after a long day in the city.

AFTERNOON TEA:

Weekends present an opportunity to indulge in Taj Boston's beloved silver-service Afternoon Tea in the elegant French and Adam Rooms, where sophisticated white-glove service is choreographed to the classical scores of a live violinist. High tea, served on Taj Boston's antique fine china, includes traditional treats like delectable tea sandwiches and petit fours, as well as infused tea cocktails.

CHAMPAGNE SUNDAY BRUNCH BUFFET ON THE ROOF:

April through October, a luxurious seasonal Champagne Sunday Brunch Buffet unfolds on the hotel's rooftop affording extended-stay guests with panoramic views of Boston's impressive cityscape. Themed displays spotlight made-to-order breakfast selections, a raw bar, carving stations and a requisite Bloody Mary bar. Extended-stay guests receive priority seating for this one-of-a-kind Boston experience.

History & Heritage:

In 1927, Edward N. Wyner hired Strickland, Blodget & Law Architects to construct the tallest hotel in the heart of Back Bay. Taj Boston is now a defining landmark anchoring Newbury Street and the Public Garden. Its Beaux Arts brick façade and 20th century décor serve as a symbol of the hotel's timeless beauty and grace that is celebrated as one of Boston's historical treasures. Reputable guests like Shirley Temple, Elizabeth Taylor, the Duke and Duchess of Windsor, and Winston Churchill, who has a Luxury Park View Suite named after him, have been frequent patrons enjoying the discreet and personal service that characterizes Taj Boston. For its 75th anniversary, the Back Bay icon received a meticulous restoration showcasing the hotel's classic interiors, updated amenities and longstanding hospitality, which preserves the time-honored elegance that makes Taj Boston a beloved favorite for guests and locals alike.
